

Hidden Gems

...experience Prague like a local

The best offers can be found on area.cz

Dear guests,

Charles Bridge and Prague Castle are places that everybody knows very well. However, modern Prague is totally different. There are bistros, cafés, architectural treasures and parks. Have you ever heard of Nový Svět or Prague's ferries? You won't find them anywhere else in the world. They are unique to PRAGUE, the city of a hundred spires. Immerse yourselves in the beauty of one of the most wonderful cities of the world for a few days and draw inspiration from it like many of the world's artists and explore the most interesting places of this slightly mysterious city with a unique atmosphere.

You will definitely fall in love with Prague and its people.

1 NOVÝ SVĚT

Map

The picturesque street called Nový Svět (New World) is situated under Prague Castle and is regarded as the most beautiful place in Prague. It is concealed under the massive defensive walls and away from any bustle. Nový Svět is said to be the most golden part of Prague because its original poor inhabitants wanted to make up for their poverty by giving their houses names containing the word "golden."

Address

U Brusnice - Černínská, 110 00, Praha 1

Getting there from the hotel

tram 22 Malovanka > Brusnice

2 ST. CLARE VINEYARD (VINICE SV. KLÁRY)

Website

St. Clare Vineyard is a national heritage site. Along with seven other vineyards within the area of today's Prague, it reminds us of the faded glory of the city's wine-making. It was founded around 1228, when it belonged to the St. George Convent at Prague Castle. Nowadays, it is part of the Botanical Garden, making it absolutely unique globally.

3 PRAGUE FERRIES

Prague's ferries, also known as Prague Venice, offer totally different views of the city and an interesting way to fully explore both banks of the Vltava River. These popular ferry routes are included in Prague's public transport system, so you can use your public transport ticket to travel by them.

- Císařská louka > Kotevní/Výtoň
- Troja > Císařský ostrov
- Pražská tržnice > Ostrov Štvanice > Rohanský ostrov

4 THE ROTATING HEAD OF FRANZ KAFKA

Map

This eleven-metre statue is Prague's 21st-century technical wonder. Its forty-two moving panels make up the face of the famous Prague-based writer Franz Kafka. All you need is wait for the right alignment of all panels. The statue was made by David Černý and it stands at Quadrio shopping centre. It also connects art with modern technologies and with the traditional dexterity of Czech craftsmen.

6 FOLIMANKA SHELTER

Website

Behind an armoured gate in Pod Karlovem street, there is a large maze of corridors and rooms. This shelter was built in top secrecy during the Cold War as a refuge for civilians in emergency situations. Besides the building as such you can also see an exhibition of photographs of other large civil defence shelters in Prague.

7 PETŘÍN FUNICULAR

Map

The funicular to Petřín Hill has been operated since 1891 and it connects to the tram line at Újezd. The two-car funicular travels on a 510-metre track covering an elevation of 130 metres and passing through the Hunger Wall on the top. The original funicular was powered by water counterbalancing and was only electrified in 1932.

EMMAUS MONASTERY

Map

The Emmaus Monastery was the only Slavic monastery in King Charles IV's empire. It became a centre of education and arts. One of its students of the language of Constantin and Methodius was John Huss (Jan Hus). Many illuminated literary treasures were created there, including the Reims Gospel Book, which became part of the coronation treasure of French kings.
